REGULATIONS

Food and beverage vendors are required to follow state regulations as it concerns food safety, processed products, and handling. Vendors may be required to provide a 2021 DHEC or Department of Agriculture certification and a list of the items they plan to sell during the 2021 season before they are allowed to sell at the market. It is the responsibility of each vendor to know requirements for SC Sales Tax. Individual vendors are responsible for obtaining all licenses and or permits required by DHEC, SCDA and any county or other state agencies.

The City of Mauldin does not allow the sale of alcohol, firearms or ammunition, fireworks, or other potentially harmful items at the PB&J Festival, unless approved.

The City of Mauldin reserves the right to refuse acceptance of any vendor or item at its sole discretion.

VENDOR SITES

Vendors are required to provide their own tent, tables, and chairs needed to display their product and operate their booth.

The city will provide a space of at least 10'x10' and will make all decisions concerning placement along the market setup area.

The area around the table must be barrier free. Any chairs must be kept behind tables at all times. Vendors must furnish their own cleaning material for garbage removal. Vendors are responsible for cleaning their area at the end of each market day. Garbage must be removed from the market.

INSURANCE

The City of Mauldin does not carry any insurance policy, nor does it convey the protection of its policy to any vendors selling at the festival. All food is to be presented in a clean and safe fashion for the protection of the customer by the selling vendor. The City of Mauldin will not be held responsible for any false claims or safety of products sold at the festival.

The City of Mauldin reserves the right to amend, add to, or delete these Rules and Regulations as necessary to carry out the operation of the Market.
